SECRETARY OF STATE

Mr. Chris Nelson
Secretary of State
500 E. Capitol
Pierre, SD 57501

Dear Secretary of State:

Thank you for taking time this morning to consider whether a campaign report is required for Promising Future, Inc.. I agree that many of the statutes and regulations concerning our state finance laws are vague and need revision. It was good to learn that even before recent events, you and your office have been working on drafting a complete revision of our state campaign laws. Our citizens are certainly entitled to clear and unambiguous laws.

Enclosed is a Ballot Question Finance Report and Supplemental Statement for donations made by Promising Future, Inc., a South Dakota Corporation, to VoteYesForLife.com. South Dakota is a legal South Dakota corporation with a legal purpose, i.e., investing in real estate and other commercial ventures, promoting the general welfare and interests of the people of South Dakota, and other lawful business conducted in accordance with the South Dakota Business Corporation Act. This report was not submitted previously because it is believed that the donation of Promising Future, Inc., has not caused it to be considered to be a Ballot Question Committee. The definition of a Ballot Question Committee, according to SDCL 12.25.1 (1A), is " any two or more people who cooperate for the purpose of raising, collecting or disbursing money for the adoption or defeat of any question submitted to the voters at any election." Whether a corporation is one person or not is one question which this definition does not clarify. I believe there are other reasons as well as to why a report is not required by our current laws to be submitted by Promising Future, Inc.. However, in the event it should be determined that a report is required, this report and supplement statement are being submitted so that their contents may be made known to the general public prior to the election.

The donation being reported was not solicited by Promising Future, Inc., and the donation was actually made by the corporation with corporation funds. As you are aware, this donation has also been reported on the Campaign Finance Report submitted by VoteYesForLife.com several days ago.

This corporation has not and does not solicit contributions from any individuals or businesses in support of any ballot issue or candidate for office. Promising Future, Inc., has made this contribution from its capital, in support of Referred Law 6 and the protection of the lives of over 800 unborn children in South Dakota annually; and in support of the great need to protect the health of women from the many, many post abortion problems experienced by women having abortions.

I have publicly stated that there is an attorney client privilege involved in this matter and have previously asserted that privilege relative to Promising Future, Inc.. Nevertheless, in compliance with the spirit and the letter of our existing campaign laws, and on behalf of Promising Future, Inc., please file the enclosed report and supplemental statement.

It would be greatly appreciated if you would please attach and post a copy of this letter with our report and supplemental statement.

If you have any questions, please contact my office accordingly.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Roger Hunt
President, Promising Future, Inc.
